

- 17 -

faith; and He graciously credits them with Christ's righteousness, and freely declares them righteous in His sight.

And through it all He remains righteous even while He graciously shows mercy by justifying the unrighteous!

Is this not a great gospel; and is not God marvelous in devising this wonderful way of salvation?