

tree of life and living forever is represented sacramentally, as though by partaking of the tree one's life is extended unendingly.