

(2) Jesus Christ is revealed as possessing the rights and powers of deity. He has the right to receive worship, and the power to forgive sins and to raise the dead.

(3) Jesus Christ is revealed as having existed before the incarnation, from eternity past, with the Father.

(4) Jesus Christ is revealed as being equal to the Father and the Spirit in respect of His divine nature, attributes, rights, powers, and glory.

(5) Jesus Christ is revealed as having performed divine works. He was active in creation, is active in preservation, and is most certainly active in redemption.