

In the second message we will cover four additional areas of concern, including:

Some observations regarding miscellaneous matters preceding the meeting

Some observations regarding miscellaneous matters of decorum during the meeting

Some observations regarding remuneration for services performed

Some observations regarding conservation of the materials of public ministry of the Word

I trust that these observations may be of help to you as you contemplate public ministry of the Word.