

JAM 2:3 and you pay special attention to the one who is wearing the fine clothes, and say, "You sit here in a good place," and you say to the poor man, "You stand over there, or sit down by my footstool,"

JAM 2:4 have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil motives?

JAM 2:5 Listen, my beloved brethren: did not God choose the poor of this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which He promised to those who love Him?

JAM 2:6 But you have dishonored the poor man. Is it not the rich who oppress you and personally drag you into court?

JAM 2:7 Do they not blaspheme the fair name by which you have been called?

JAM 2:8 If, however, you are fulfilling the royal law, according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you are doing well.

JAM 2:9 But if you show partiality, you are committing sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors.

JAM 2:10 For whoever keeps the whole law and yet stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of all.

JAM 2:11 For He who said, "Do not commit adultery," also said, "Do not commit murder." Now if you do not commit adultery, but do commit murder, you have become a transgressor of the law.

JAM 2:12 So speak and so act, as those who are to be judged by the law of liberty.

JAM 2:13 For judgment will be merciless to one who has shown no mercy; mercy triumphs over judgment.

JAM 2:14 What use is it, my brethren, if a man says he has faith, but he has no works? Can that faith save him?

JAM 2:15 If a brother or sister is without clothing and in need of daily food,

JAM 2:16 and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, be warmed and be filled," and yet you do not give them what is necessary for their body, what use is that?

JAM 2:17 Even so faith, if it has no works, is dead, being by itself.

JAM 2:18 But someone may well say, "You have faith, and I have works; show me your faith without the works, and I will show you my faith by my works."

JAM 2:19 You believe that God is one. You do well; the demons also believe, and shudder.

JAM 2:20 But are you willing to recognize, you foolish fellow, that faith without works is useless?
