

JAM 5:6 You have condemned and put to death the righteous man; he does not resist you.

JAM 5:9 Do not complain, brethren, against one another, that you yourselves may not be judged; behold, the Judge is standing right at the door.

JAM 5:10 As an example, brethren, of suffering and patience, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

JAM 5:11 Behold, we count those blessed who endured. You have heard of the endurance of Job and have seen the outcome of the Lord's dealings, that the Lord is full of compassion and is merciful.

JAM 5:12 But above all, my brethren, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or with any other oath; but let your yes be yes, and your no, no; so that you may not fall under judgment.

1PE 2:1 Therefore, putting aside all malice and all guile and hypocrisy and envy and all slander,

1PE 2:2 like newborn babes, long for the pure milk of the word, that by it you may grow in respect to salvation,

1PE 2:11 Beloved, I urge you as aliens and strangers to abstain from fleshly lusts, which wage war against the soul.

1PE 2:12 Keep your behavior excellent among the Gentiles, so that in the thing in which they slander you as evildoers, they may on account of your good deeds, as they observe them, glorify God in the day of visitation.

1PE 2:13 Submit yourselves for the Lord's sake to every human institution, whether to a king as the one in authority,

1PE 2:14 or to governors as sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and the praise of those who do right.

1PE 2:15 For such is the will of God that by doing right you may silence the ignorance of foolish men.

1PE 2:16 Act as free men, and do not use your freedom as a covering for evil, but use it as bondslaves of God.

1PE 2:17 Honor all men; love the brotherhood, fear God, honor the king.

1PE 2:18 Servants, be submissive to your masters with all respect, not only to those who are good and gentle, but also to those who are unreasonable.

1PE 2:19 For this finds favor, if for the sake of conscience toward God a man bears up under sorrows when suffering unjustly.

1PE 2:20 For what credit is there if, when you sin and are harshly treated, you endure it with patience? But if when you do what is right and suffer for it you patiently endure it, this finds favor with God.
